

a deviation of the fictional cross-diagonals from the desired cross-diagonals is determined, and

17. The method of claim 10 wherein the relationships between signal values and the actual measurements of the engraved test cells are approximately linear; and the relationships are defined by transmission coefficients.

REMARKS

25 The specification, drawings, and abstract have been amended in accordance with U. S. practice, and for improved readability and clarity.

An Information Disclosure Statement is enclosed for 5 the Examiner's review.

Pratt Voleys (Reg)

Brett A. Valiquet
Hill & Simpson
A Professional Corporation
85th Floor Sears Tower
Chicago, Illinois 60606
(312) 876-0200; Ext. 3844
Attorneys for Applicants